

Luke 9:1-2

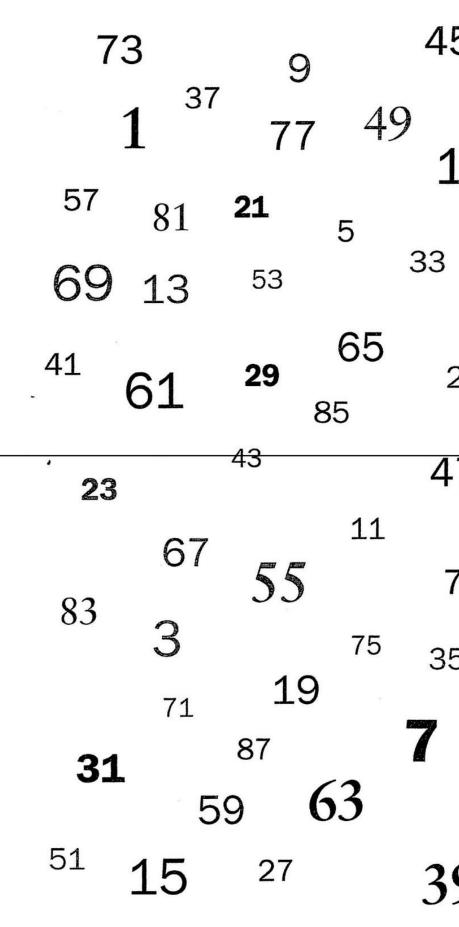

When Jesus had called the Twelve together, he gave them power and authority to drive out all demons and to cure diseases, 2 and he sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal the sick

How has Jesus equipped us to carry out his ministry?

Jesus heals us and then gives us the power and authority to heal both body and spirit of others.

How has Jesus equipped us to carry out his ministry?

Jesus will meet all our needs when we trust in him, living by faith/inter-dependence on God.

"When Jesus is all you have you realize that Jesus is all you need"

"Take nothing for the journey" means that Jesus will meet all our needs when we trust him, living by faith, being inter-dependent on God.

"People who tithe regularly typically have less debt than other demographics – 8 out of 10 have zero credit card debt and 28% of them are completely debt free, including not having a mortgage."

Luke 9:5-6

5 If people do not welcome you, leave their town and shake the dust off your feet as a testimony against them." ⁶So they set out and went from village to village, proclaiming the good news and healing people everywhere.

How has Jesus equipped us to carry out his ministry?

Jesus reminds us that it is not news.

our job to save people but to be obedient in proclaiming the good

"Eric Liddell, missionary, died in occupied China at the end of World War II. All of Scotland mourned."

The end.

Matthew 28:18-20

18... "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. 19 Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20 and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

How has Jesus equipped us to carry out his ministry? Jesus heals us and gives us power and authority- to heal both body and spirit, Jesus meets all our needs- when we trust him, living by faith being financially inter-dependent, Jesus saves- it is not our job to save people but to be obedient in proclaiming the good news.
