Pray Persistently

Although Tomlinson himself did not receive his blessing that night, he refused to give up his quest. Throughout 1907 he preached that the experience was for believers today. By his own testimony, he was often a seeker in the altar. For Pastor Tomlinson, it would not be until the next Assembly in January 1908 that he would personally experience the fire of Pentecost.

Then Jesus told his disciples a parable to show them that they should always pray and not give up. He said: "In a certain town there was a judge who neither feared God nor cared what people thought. And there was a widow in that town who kept coming to him with the plea, 'Grant me justice against my adversary.'

And the Lord said, "Listen to what the unjust judge says. And will not God bring about justice for his chosen ones, who cry out to him day and night? Will he keep putting them off? I tell you, he will see that they get justice, and quickly. However, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on the earth?"
