Steps for Going on a Mission Trip:

1. Pray - Ask God if He wants you to go and serve Him on a mission trip this summer.
2. Discuss - Share your desire to go on a mission trip with your family and other important people in your life. Ask them for their prayers and counsel.
3. Contact - Send an e-mail to the Contact for your trip to express your interest in the trip and to discuss your possible involvement.
4. Apply - If the Contact agrees that the trip is a possibility for you, go to ShelterRockChurch.com/missions and download the Application for the trip you are interested in. Be sure to read the information carefully to understand the significant commitment you are making, not just for the trip, but also the training schedule before the trip. If you feel you can commit to the trip requirements, complete the Application and hand it in along with your Non-Refundable Deposit.
5. Get Your Shots & Passport - If you're going on an international trip, these are a must. Don't hesitate! These things can take time. If you have a passport, be sure it does not expire within 6 months from the end of trip.
6. Raise Support - Write your support letter and send it to your friends and family, inviting them to participate in your faith adventure.
7. Work Hard - Mission trips don't just happen during the week you're gone. They take a lot of work, commitment, and sacrifice in the months leading up to them. This will include team meetings, training, fundraisers, etc.
8. Journal - As soon as you are accepted onto the team, begin writing about your experiences — the team-building meetings, how God is providing, your prayers, etc.
9. Go - You've prayed. You've taken a step of faith. You've prepared. God has provided. Now it's time to go!
10. Tell - When you return, be sure to tell others what God did during your mission experience.
11. Thank - Be sure to say a special Thank You! to those who supported you in prayer and financially. Send them a report of your trip along with some pictures.

“Then the King will say to those on his right, ‘Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the creation of the world. For I was hungry, and you fed me. I was thirsty, and you gave me a drink. I was a stranger, and you invited me into your home. I was naked, and you gave me clothing. I was sick, and you cared for me. I was in prison, and you visited me.’

“Then these righteous ones will reply, ‘Lord, when did we ever see you hungry and feed you? Or thirsty and give you something to drink? Or a stranger and show you hospitality? Or naked and give you clothing? When did we ever see you sick or in prison and visit you?’

“And the King will say, ‘I tell you the truth, when you did it to one of the least of these my brothers and sisters, you were doing it to me!’” (Matthew 25:34-40).
